This work is a comprehensive record of the origin and development of the Newcastle suburb of Lambton.

Part 1 of the book provides a history of the suburb.

For Part 2 of the publication, some members of the Newcastle Family History Society Inc. volunteered to research and write on aspects of Lambton's people and its development. They were greatly aided by many of the suburb's senior residents who provided oral history and personal photographs for the project.

Part 3 of the publications contains six appendices which add to the broad scope of the work.

The work is fully referenced and indexed.
