In June 1896 the old Wallsend burial ground between Thomas Street and Newcastle Road, Wallsend, was officially closed. A new cemetery in Sandgate Road had been gazetted in March 1894 and official burials began there in June 1896.

NFHS members surveyed the cemetery and the available records between 2003 and 2008 and compiled three volumes about those who were buried there till 2008.

The publication is in three volumes.

Volume I: (A to G)

Volume II: (H to Parsons, C)

Volume III: (Parsons, E to Z)
