PRESIDENT'S REPORT

Dear Members, welcome to winter.

I will ask again for help to keep our research room open, there are only 4 of us trying to do this and we really would welcome some assistance.

You would not be on your own, we would be there with you, it is very enjoyable and you meet some lovely people, it is not hard, just an interest in family history is all that is needed.

There has only been one of us doing the research that comes in on-line, one of our committee members is lending a hand at present so we can try and catch up. Again, any help with this would be much appreciated.

Research is the only way that we earn any money to keep the research room open and help cover our running costs, if we don't earn any money, we can't pay our overheads. Two of our executive/committee members are unavailable to help with these things due to illness and work commitments, so that leaves the other 4 of us to try and keep things going, it would be a shame in this our 40th year if we are unable to continue due to lack of assistance to keep the research room open.

You will find a notice in this newsletter for our 40th Birthday Celebrations, due to CATERING REQUIREMENTS YOU MUST RSVP by the due date to attend this function. We hope lots of you will join us.

From those of us who are helping in the research room we do hope we hear from some of you about helping out in the room so that we can continue to stay open. Membership of a local group is not just an annual payment but a commitment to the aim of that group. We are about family history and as members, we have all done our own research and have the knowledge to help others and that is why we have our wonderful library. Despite some believing all can be found online these days, many people do not even know where to look and that is where we can help them.

I hope to see lots of you at our AGM and Birthday Celebrations on 12th August, enjoy your family history endeavours and I hope you don't hit too many brick walls.

Kind regards Kay McDonald

President Y&D.F.H.G. Inc. Phone Kay on 0409 606 429

TROVE NOW SECURED

Trove's future has been secured! The National Library of Australia welcomed the commitment made by the Government to provide $33m over the next 4 years to maintain Trove, with $9.2m ongoing and indexed funding from July 2027. We are delighted that Trove's future has been secured. Trove has a place for every story, with 14 billion Australian moments captured for future generations. It has a story for every place, with Voluntroves from Groote Eylandt in the Northern Territory to Burnie in Tasmania. It is where old poetry is transformed into new lyrics, newspapers articles become historical fiction, and where Australian humanities research is powered. Most recently, it has been a place for First Nations communities to continue to tell their stories, through our First Australians pages. Trove is a place for all Australians, which is connected to all our places. It is a truly national treasure, and an international world leader. The overwhelming support we have received from the Trove community (both new and old) has been humbling. We take our role as the custodians of Trove, on behalf of the Library and our partner organisations, very seriously. The certainty of this funding decision will allow the National Library to continue to provide this essential service, enrich it with new content, and stabilise and secure the platform, in line with the Trove Strategy.

NEW SATURDAY HOURS

NEW opening hours for SATURDAYS, 10am till 1.00pm.

Wednesday is still the same, 10am till 2.30pm.

WELCOME

A warm welcome to our new members: Karlene Ferguson, Peggy Laurence, Christine Murphy, John Butlin, Allyson Randall and Julie White.

NEWS FROM THE ROOMS

The executive decided to put the newsletter out in June this time, to coincide with membership renewals, 40th birthday celebrations and our AGM in August.

The group has had people from Omnia Inclusive Employment visit our rooms. These people with challenged abilities have enjoyed their visits. They especially enjoyed the microfilm readers where they could turn the handle to make them go and looking at how a family tree is drawn up. Margaret Hall and Kay McDonald have been overseeing these visits.

One of our library assistants, Emma Cockburn, has been helping Margaret Hall to sort out the map drawers. We were given lots of old maps, so these have been added to our map collection. Please feel free to come and have a look, they are very handy when researching your history on the local area.

Young Services Club presented our group with a cheque for half of our research room rental for the year. This is very much appreciated and helped us greatly financially, as the only way we make any money is to do research for people.

UPCOMING AGM – 12 AUGUST

Our Annual General Meeting will be held on Saturday 12th August at 2.00pm at the Young Services Club, which will also include our 40th Birthday Celebration Afternoon Tea. **Please see special notice in this newsletter to book for the birthday celebrations, as numbers are required for catering.

Guest speaker, Father Allen Crowe will be speaking on his recent new publication on the Crowe family from Murringo. Nomination Forms for the AGM positions must be received by the Secretary no later than 5.00pm on Saturday 5th August 2023.

MEMBERSHIP

A Membership form is also included in this newsletter and must be completed together with your payment for the next financial year. Membership renewal is due 1st July 2023. All members are to complete a new membership form and return it in person or via email when they renew their membership. Direct Deposit details are on the form or you can call to the research room during opening hours to pay your membership. If paying by direct deposit please remember to include your name as the reference.

CBD PROJECT

The Group is working on collating lots of information on the Streets of Young, especially Boorowa Street. We go back to the early 1900's with lots of newspaper advertisements and comments from older residents who remember the old shops in Young, and who owned and operated these shops. We would welcome any discussion about the old shops in Young and where they actually were.

You are more than welcome to contact Kay McDonald and Marty Barclay. If you call to the rooms with your photos, they can be copied while you are there. We would love to hear from you so we can add to what we already have, and this will be all stored at our Family History Room, near Green Ivy Café.

HILLTOPS OFF THE BEATEN TRACK - ART & CULTURAL TRAIL

Our rooms were open as part of this event so that people could take advantage of visiting the rooms to learn about their family history and the history of the Hilltops area. This event was held over two weeks from 8 - 22 March 2023, with many interesting events and exhibitions on the trail around the Hilltops district, including the surrounding villages. It will be held again next year, 13 - 24 March 2024 and we will again participate by opening our research room.

1825 LOCHIEL HOUSE

Jane Sibley from Young was fortunate to recently visit Historical Lochiel House at Kurrajong, which her Great Great Great Grandfather, Joseph Douglass had built in 1825. It was originally known as Ivy Lodge. Jane was thrilled that the staff allowed her and husband Tony to have a quick look through the old buildings which her ancestor had built almost 200 years ago. Lochiel House continues the tradition of offering hospitality to weary travellers as a restaurant in 'The Coach House' at Lochiel, the oldest buildings at Kurrajong Heights, on the Bells Line of Road.

BEREAVEMENTS

Our sincere sympathy is extended to members who have recently lost a family member. Sincere condolences to Heather Bailey and all the family from all of us at Y&D.F.H.G. on the loss of her husband Gerry Bailey, who was a valued member of our community.

Nellie Cram

Nellie passed away peacefully at home on Saturday 6th May 2023. She was the beloved wife of Peter Cram. Nellie was a past President, committee member, research monitor and member of Young & District Family History Group, she was a wonderful researcher and always happy to help out when she could. Thankyou for the time you have given to us Nellie, may you rest in peace.

RIP.

FUNERAL LISTS

A folder is now available at the rooms, with funeral lists for 2021 - 2023, for both Patterson Bros Funerals and Penrose Funerals. We have funeral notices from previous years also available at our research room.

YOUNG LIBRARY

Young has a very proud library history. The School of Arts Library was opened on 11 January 1905. On 2 August 1944, Young formed the first free public library in NSW under the Public Library Act. The Young District Public Library began operations on 1 January 1945 in the present building in Lynch Street. In August 1952, when it began operations the South West Library Service was one of the first 4 regional libraries formed in NSW. It was made up of the Councils of Young, Harden and Boorowa and their attendant Shires. Upon amalgamation in 2016 Young, Harden and Boorowa Shires merged to establish the Hilltops Council, with the library becoming the Hilltops Council Library. Sue Gibson replaced Mrs Tess Rowe as Regional Librarian in July 1976 and the building underwent a major refurb. Other library staff included Joan Parkman, Joan Ryan, Judy Hesketh and Joan Saines. Library processes were manual, with catalogue cards for access to the collection and cards to issue the books to the public with. For the catalogue each book title had multiple cards. Technology then changed and in December 1990, a Special Grant from the State Library of NSW enabled the purchase of a facsimile machine! In 1994 a Library Development Grant was received from the State Government to automate the library Service, which was implemented from 1995 to 2004. The next great change was the coming of the internet, with computers installed for public access internet in November 1977. Janice Ottey started in the library in June 1994, and was appointed as Regional Librarian in March 2001. The State Library and additional funding from Library Grants provided necessary funds for various tasks to be completed. The Centenary celebration to honour the building in 2004 was a momentous occasion. At the time the local library service was one of the few still operating from the original premises, and more than 20 years later, it is quite possibly the last and only original! The current Librarian is John Williams.

The Hilltops Library will move to new premises in mid-June this year, and will become known as the joint-use Library and Community Facility. The new 2.5 storey facility is located on Young High School grounds and integrated with Carrington Park.

BOOK LAUNCH

'Fairview, Murringo (Marengo) Flats, NSW. The History of the Ancestral Land of the Crowe Family'.

Members of our group attended Father Allen Crowe's book launch for the Crowe Family at Murringo.

It was a resounding success and a wonderful day. We met the Irish Ambassador and his wife, who were just delightful. His wife is an archivist and she had a lovely chat with Carmel, Marty and Kay about family history.

On 15 April 2023, fifty years of family research by Murringo's own Father Allen Crowe came to fruition. The book is the story of Michael and Sarah Crowe and their descendants. Michael and Sarah took the opportunity of changes to NSW land laws in the 1860s to make a selection of land in Murringo Flats - and named it Fairview, recognising their Irish origins. They had 14 children and 117 grand-children.

Many contributed to farming and other activity in the region. Their 1870 homestead is still standing on the Windermere property. Part of Fairview remains in the Crowe family - owned by Mark and Therese Crowe (who currently reside at Murringo Barracks).

Michael and Sarah are buried at the Murringo Cemetery, with twelve of their children. The launch was on the 170th anniversary of the wedding of Michael and Sarah Crowe in Campbelltown. And they are still together!

Almost 300 people attended the launch to hear Father Allen speak about his new book and the story behind it. A special guest was the Ambassador of Ireland in Australia, H.E. Tim Mawe. After an introduction by Hilltops Mayor, Margaret Roles, the Ambassador formally launched the book. Murringo's artist and musician, Judy Barker, sung a beautiful rendition of the Irish Blessing. Other guests included the Ambassador's wife, Patricia McCarthy; the Mayor of Hilltops Council, Margaret Roles and husband John Roles; and Steph Cook, MP and her husband Keith Duran. Following the launch, there was a light lunch in the gardens at Murringo Barracks.

Copies of the book are available for $40 plus postage. Contact: Father Allen Crowe 02 6382 2263.

The book is also available from the Family History Centre in Young, Taubman and Webb Trading Post in Murringo, and at Murringo Markets.

Photos: The Crowe siblings - Shirley, Heather, Lindsay, Janette, Barbara and Allen; & Irish Ambassador Tim Mawe who launched the book.
