Volunteering

Our Society is run by members volunteering their time in whatever capacity and without them we wouldn't exist. You are welcome to join any of our groups where you can learn the value of your subscription and the research facilities that are available to you. We always need assistance in a variety of areas and we welcome you to join in. Just make your intentions known to one of our librarians when our library is open or email our secretary.

For New Members: "New Members Starter Kit" that you receive when you join will explain what each group does and how you can join their activities. Check our website to keep up to-date.

Each Member is entitled to a 10% discount on 1st Copy purchased of any Society's Publication (Book, CD or USB), unless priced at $10 or less.

By signing the Membership Application Form you agree to abide by the Constitution of the Newcastle Family History Society Inc.,2021 which can be accessed on our website. There is also a copy available to read at the library during opening hours. You can also request a copy to be emailed.
