August 2025

August General Meeting

Tuesday 5 August—2.00 pm

Guest Speaker—Benita Parker

Meeting will also be held via Zoom (see link below)

Benita's presentation should prove to be extremely interesting. Her topic will be Bush to Bar, which is the story of Mary Johnston, one of the earliest people to settle in Westy and then later, wife of the owner of the Museum Hotel.

Benita dresses for the occasion, as well!

I look forward to seeing many members on the day.

If you would like to join by Zoom but feel you need some assistance, please contact our Secretary (email address above).

Mel Woodford (President)

Overview of July meeting

Despite the dreadful weather on Tuesday 1 July, we had a good number attend our July meeting. It was a fabulous fun afternoon of trivia and eating for our Christmas in July meeting.

Many thanks go to John and Judy Mulhearn who ran the trivia for us. The questions garnered a lot of laughs and quite a few errs, and were enjoyed with yummy chocolate prizes. Mel put together some fabulous prizes and we finished off the afternoon with a delicious spread of treats. Thanks to those who helped make the afternoon special.

Computers—Shutting Down

Shutting our computers down correctly is a good habit to get into. This is most important for the catalogue computer in the Reception room. Our IT Officer has put a set of directions - with pictures - on the computer for Librarians to follow to ensure that the computer will open properly the next time it is turned on.

The steps to follow are:

1. Click on the icon on the desktop.
2. Select 'Shut Down' from the drop-down menu and then select 'Shut Down'.
3. Once the computer has shut down THEN the powerpoint can be turned off.

Locking Up of the Society Rooms

Recently there have been a couple of instances when the Society rooms have not been locked when people are leaving the rooms.

Please ensure that the rooms are locked according to the instructions hanging on the wall behind the Reception desk. This includes the back gate, the toilets, the back door, the internal doors being closed and/or locked, and the main door at the front of the building.

Thank you for your diligence to this very important procedure.

Visitors and Casual Researchers

All visitors and members should sign in and out. (See also Evacuations and Fire Safety)

There are signs near the sign on book outlining fees for casual researchers using the Library. NFHS generally charges $5 on a Thursday and $10 on a Saturday but Library volunteers have the flexibility to charge $5 on a Saturday depending on when the casual researcher arrives or if they only stay for a short time. Casual researchers should be reminded that the visitor's fee can be deducted from the membership if the person joins the Society within the month.

There is no fee to walk in and look at the Library and the photos. If volunteer Librarians are not busy, they should try to engage with the visitor and give them a tour of the rooms. Please give the visitor a brochure and membership form as they leave. Currently we are also giving visitors a copy of an old black and white journal as they leave. A selection of journals are stored behind the brochures near the sign-on book.

Any corrections or additions should be emailed to Jane on the nfhspublicationsofficer@gmail.com email.

Jane Ison

Heritage Walk—The Toorak of Newcastle

Julie Keating will be leading us on a wonderful walk commencing from St Andrew's Church of England, Church Street, Mayfield. This walk will showcase some of the houses remaining from the large estates which were a feature of this suburb. Mayfield was known as the Toorak of Newcastle due to its idyllic location and large estates belonging to the commercial elite of Newcastle. Families such as the Winn Brothers, William Arnott, and John Scholey who subdivided some land and named it after his daughter May. Hence the name Mayfield was applied to the area after 1888.

Numbers will be limited to 22 so get your name down quickly by emailing Mel on nfhsresident@gmail.com

An enjoyable lunch will be held following the walk at Wests Mayfield, Industrial Drive. Book now with Mel.

The walk is on fairly flat ground with a short hill at the end to return to the starting point.

State Conference 2025

Great news!

New Librarians

Following the sad passing of Jim MacDougall, we have been without a Librarian.

We have great news that Liza Moss and Paul Cooke, both qualified Librarians, have agreed to jointly take on the role in an acting capacity until our 2026 AGM. And hopefully they will love it so much, they will officially continue after the AGM.

Thanks so much to Liza and Paul. We know you have big shoes to fill but are confident you will do an exceptional job.

If anyone wants to contact Liza and Paul, you can continue to do so by emailing them on the Librarian's email address.

Library Volunteers—Thanks

Our August roster has a few gaps where volunteers are needed. Can you help? If so, please click on the link below.

Thanks so much to our volunteers. Without volunteers, we are unable to keep the rooms open for our members and visitors to continue with their family history research.

For future reference, when there are gaps, if you could spare three hours to assist to fill these gaps, please complete the volunteer form at this link.

Once again, thanks to our wonderful volunteers.

Mel Woodford (President)

Library Accessions

The latest group of new books added to the Society Library have all been donated by Kathy Brown. We thank Kathy and all our other donors for their major contribution to our wonderful library collection.

NFHS Donations

The Library Group wants to let members know that we cannot accept donations of general reading materials, i.e. items that are not related to local history or family history.

We have a problem with storage and with volunteer hours to process them and dispose of them.

Thank you for your understanding. We certainly appreciate all the donations we receive that do become part of our collection.

We are asking all Library volunteers to explain this to members or visitors who bring these items to the Library when they are on duty.

Journal and Newsletter

December Journal (252)

As stated in the last newsletter, we were unsure whether we would be publishing a second Journal with the theme of Heroism. Well we have been very fortunate to have received many articles. Therefore the December Journal will be Heroism Part 2. We would still love you to send in articles on this theme. Please have them to the editor by Saturday 25 October 2025.

March Journal (253)

The theme of this Journal will be Writer's Choice. Always popular, this theme gives you the chance to share your writing on any topic related to family history – your research, family stories, houses – the list is endless. Please start thinking about what you might write – articles would need to be submitted by Saturday 24 January 2026.

Submission of Articles and Feedback

For all issues, and for any feedback to us, you can send your typed item to nfhseditor@gmail.com or deliver it to the Society library addressed to the Editor. We can also accept handwritten items if that's your preference.

Publications

Publications Group meets twice a year—dates advised as they are decided

We have two face-to-face meetings each year - one in March and one in October. Our next meeting will be held on Friday 17 October. Until then we will 'meet' using email.

The volunteers working on Minmi are now successfully using the file sharing on our computers.

For those who are interested in volunteering to work on a Publication for our Society but who use an Apple product, there are ways to access or deliver files to the shared folder on the NFHS computers. If we are not busy, I can help you work these things out on the 2nd, 3rd or 5th Thursday of the month during Library duty. By using your personal gmail account and accessing the 15GB of storage with the Google Drive connected to your personal gmail, you can share files without using a USB. Follow these directions and links and you will have more information than you need.

1. Make a new folder on Google Drive: <https://support.google.com/drive/answer/2375091?hl=en&co=GENIE.Platform%3DDesktop>
2. Call the folder whatever you like and put all the files you want to put in the Society's folders into that folder.
3. Come to the Society with your gmail log in details and log in to a computer by clicking on the Google icon and going to 'Sign in' in the top right-hand corner.
4. Once you are signed in, click on the gdrive icon and copy the files from the gdrive into the appropriate folder in the Publications volunteers' folder.
5. You can also copy anything from the Society computer to your personal gdrive rather than using a USB.
6. Log out of Google when you are finished.

Please consider getting involved in these valuable projects as Publications benefit the Society financially and the community with the information we publish.

Jane Ison (Publications Coordinator)

Change to SIG Group Convicts in Australia to Family History Finder

What is the Family History Finder SIG? (previously known as Convict SIG)

Special Interest Groups or SIGs. are an opportunity for members with similar interests to meet in a group setting to share knowledge and assist each other in researching and building their family history.

The Family History Finder SIG will focus on both Australian and Overseas Research queries (including Convicts) and

- meets on the first Tuesday of the month
- meets at least ten times a year
- does not meet in December or January
- meetings start at 10am.in the back room (however we can access the computers in the Blue Room if need dictates)
- visitors are always welcome

Our group meetings will feature group input on how to address general or specific genealogical problems and any matters of interest raised by attendees. Everyone will be offered opportunities to raise their research questions or their road block experiences.

If you, or someone you know, might enjoy the Family History Finder SIG meetings, you would be very welcome. The group aim would be to assist with the general or the specific ie:

- Clearly defining the specific point where progress stops. Is it a missing birth record, an unclear marriage date, or an ancestor who disappears from records?
- Looking for records beyond the obvious, such as passenger lists, directories, parish registers, and military records.
- Focusing on one ancestor and one specific record at a time to avoid getting overwhelmed.
- Considering records from neighbouring towns or regions, as ancestors may have moved or changed their names.
  - Searching for alternative spellings of names, including nicknames, maiden names, and anglicized versions.
  - Being aware that name variations can be a major reason for facing a Road Block.
  - Thoroughly examining records for any possible variations that could lead to new information.
  - Maintaining a detailed research log to track your progress, findings, and strategies.
  - Organising your records in a way that is easy to navigate and understand.
  - Noting down any assumptions, hypotheses, or conclusions drawn during your research.
  - Remembering that every piece of information, no matter how small, can contribute to solving the puzzle

YouTube

Don't forget our guest speakers at our monthly meetings are recorded and the presentations can be viewed on the Society's YouTube channel. This is a fabulous way for those who are either distance members or just can't make it to the meeting, to be able to still enjoy our speakers. Or even if you were at the meeting, you may wish to listen to the presentation again.

To view these, either go to our Society webpage and click on the YouTube tab on the Home page, or type 'YouTube Newcastle Family History Society' into your search engine, or simply click here.

Podcasts

General

Some more podcasts have been recorded since our last newsletter. I'm sure you will find them very interesting so click on the links below and enjoy listening.

It's interesting to note the number of people who listen to our podcasts. I would like to thank Benita Parker, Narelle Austen and Dr Pam Harrison for all the time and effort they have given to the Society in preparing and recording their podcasts. As of 11 July 2025, Benita's series In the Shadow of Mount Sugarloaf has had 326 listeners; Narelle's series Birds of a Feather has had 366 listeners; and Dr Pam Harrison's series How it was: Advances in Medicine in my Lifetime and one on The Creation of the Calvary Mater Newcastle Palliative Care Service have had 175 listeners. I would also like to thank all others who have prepared and recorded podcasts for us.

In the Shadow of Mount Sugarloaf* by Benita Parker, West Wallsend District Heritage Group

This is Part 2 of The First Coalmines 1870-1895. In this episode, Benita guides us through West Wallsend's transformation—from a forested hillside to a vibrant coal mining town, complete with its own railway and a thriving community. To listen, click here.

Felonious Females* by Member Mel Woodford

In this episode, I take us back to 1829 London, where two teenage girls, Rebecca Markham and Maria Beavis, were convicted for stealing 20 yards of cotton. To listen, click here.

Our banner has been out of commission for some months but has now been repaired so it can be used again. You will need to use the narrower piece of dowel to put into the hole outside the Society rooms. Once that is safely in the metal hole, the banner can be slid over the dowel.

Many thanks to Bert for following up this problem.
